  List in this column all of the activities you performed with respect to your project during this week. Activities can be anything worked on the project: a document, a deliverable, a component of your system, time with the customer, planning/scheduling meetings, etc. Please be honest when reporting your status. For example, even if you are not yet supposed to be working on design per the process, please note a design activity if you did in fact work on the design that week - honest reporting will not adversely affect your grade.
